NBL CANADA FRONT OFFICE

David Magley – Commissioner

commissioner@nblcanada.ca

David Magley steps into the role of NBL Commissioner with decades of basketball playing and coaching experience. As a high school student in Indiana, he earned the state title of "Mr. Basketball," then traveled the hardwood through a college career at Kansas; a professional career with the Cleveland Cavaliers, then played in the minor leagues and overseas.

Magley later coached in both high school (Bradenton Christian School, 2000-2011), and then spent the past two seasons as head coach of the NBL's Brampton A's (45-27, conference finals in both seasons).

He recently celebrated his 35th wedding anniversary with his wife Evelyn, and his four children are all decorated student-athletes.

Audley Stephenson – Director of Public Relations & Content Strategy

audman@nblcanada.ca

Audley Stephenson AKA "The Audman" is the media personality of NBL Canada and ambassador for the league since its inception. He produces many of the league's web based content and also supports the league's on-line engagement strategy.

Audley is no stranger to the media/broadcasting and professional basketball industry having covered the NBA through a web based talk show he co-produced/co-hosted for five seasons. The Toronto native is also the founder of The Audman Media – a brand that produces digital stories on sports and urban culture and features interviews with a variety of athletes, entertainers and persons/topics of interest.

Anthony Bennett – Website Administrator

anthony@nblcanada.ca

Born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio Anthony has been with the league from the first year and has been involved in all facets of teams operations from tickets sales, game day operations to social media and on-line engagement. He got his start with the Oshawa Power before moving to a league office role where he provided direct support to the Commissioner's office at the conclusion of the 2011 season into 2012.

When the 2013 season rolled around, he joined the Brampton A's to lend his expertise and knowledge to help get them off the ground during their inaugural season. He is now back with the League Office serving as their Website Administrator for the NBL Canada's fifth season.

Chuck Miller - League Statistician, Director of Player Clearances

chuck@nblcanada.ca

Chuck Miller is pleased to work with NBL Canada for the fifth consecutive season. A graduate of Hamilton College and of the Street Academy of Albany (N.Y.), Miller has worked with several professional sports leagues, including the Continental Basketball Association, the Premier Basketball League and the American Professional Soccer League. He currently authors the NBL Canada's "Weekly Report," a digital download of results and updates from the League's past games.

Chuck is also one of the most dedicated minor league sports historians ever known. His efforts to restore statistics and games to historic records have helped to uncover the results from the Continental Basketball Association's post-World War II years, as well as the missing American Hockey League's 1942 All-Star Game, the first played in league history. In 1993, Miller recovered the Atlantic City Boardwalk Championship Trophy, originally awarded to the champions of the Eastern Hockey League (1933-73). That trophy is now on display at the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto.

Michael Falloon – Director of Officials

mike@nblcanada.ca

Michael Falloon has been a part of the National Basketball League of Canada since its inaugural year as an on floor official. In 2014, Falloon retired from the floor and was appointed Director of Officials for the league.

In his prestigious 25 year officiating career, Falloon has officiated at countless national and provincial championships at the University, Collegiate, Provincial and High School levels. At each level he has earned the gold medal game for his hard work, dedication and commitment to the game of basketball.

In his current role as director of officials, he is responsible for the officials' on-court performance as well as the day-to-day managing, assigning, recruiting and development of officials for the league.

LETTER FROM NBL CANADA COMMISSIONER

Dear Valued Fans, Sponsors and Supporters:

On behalf of the NBL Canada let me personally thank all of our 2,000,000+ fans that have attended our games in person and watched us live-streamed on YouTube, over the past 5 years.

During the first 4 seasons we have consistently seen our fan base grow as our product has improved dramatically. We have made mistakes and are grateful to the faithful who have stayed the course, given us their wonderful ideas and supported us as we grow and get better.

As the Commissioner I am so very fortunate to work with a Board of Governors who sincerely love the game and their markets. I will be at a game every night that one is being played and I encourage you to come up and give me your thoughts on how things are going and what we can do better.

This season will be our best yet and are thrilled to have you be a major part of it.

Let's pull for our local teams and for the success of this league in this great country...

Sincerely,

David J. Magley
Commissioner
National Basketball League of Canada

NBL CANADA RULE VARIATIONS

NBL Canada rules are identical to FIBA rules, with the following notable exceptions: 12-minute Quarters. Teams will play four twelve-minute quarters to complete a regulation game.

The NBL has also implemented the "Five second back down rule." When a player is below the free throw line, he will only have 5 seconds to have the ball without shooting or passing it, thus cutting back on the constant banging that has taken place historically between players on both offense and defence.

NBL CANADA PLAYOFF FORMAT

At the end of the regular season, all teams will advance to the playoffs. The #1 seed will play the #4 seed in a best-of-five series (2-2-1) and the #2 seed will play the #3 seed in a best-of-five (2-2-1). The winning divisional teams will next play a best-of-seven series (2-2-1-1-1). The final two teams remaining (one in each division) will play each other in a best-of-seven finals series (2-3-2). The league does reserve the right to reschedule this information due to travel limitations.

NBL CANADA TIEBREAKERS

In the event that two or more teams are tied in terms of playoff seeding, the following tiebreakers will take place, in order of importance:

- head-to-head record shall determine the winner;
- if still a tie, head-to-head record against each team in their division will determine the winner;
- if still a tie, points scored in head to head competition will determine the winner;
- if still a tie, average margin of victory in head to head competition will determine the winner;
- if still a tie, the team correctly calling the flip of a coin will be seeded higher.

2,842 fans. The Rainmen righted the ship in Game 3 however, and advanced to the NBL Canada Finals, winning over the Kebs 106-95.

In the NBL Canada Finals, the London Lightning jumped out to a 2 games to none lead by winning their first two home games against the Halifax Rainmen, 86-83 and 113-96. Returning to the Metro Centre in Halifax, the Rainmen's season all but seemed over after trailing by six points with 50 seconds remaining in an elimination match. But an improbable late rally, capped by a buzzer beating, off-the-glass jumper by guard Chris Hagan, gave the Rainmen an amazing 95-93 win before 3,933 enthralled fans. They kept the momentum going by winning Game 4, 93-85 in front of 3,842 home fans, tying the Finals at 2 games apiece.

Game 5 of the NBL Canada Finals shifted back to London where a playoff record crowd of 5,106 screaming fans showed up to rally their Lightning. With the game 78-77, the Lightning used a 21-6 run to never look back and win the Championship, 116-92.

Year Two 2012-13: The Windsor Express joined as an expansion club and kicked off season two with a 111-105 victory over the Halifax Rainmen before a crowd of over 3,000 fans. The league also welcomed the Montreal Jazz to the league as a replacement for the Quebec Kebs.

The league played an expanded 40 game season, followed by the playoffs. Five teams made the playoffs this year, as the defending champion London Lightning joined the Summerside Storm, the Windsor Express, the Saint John Mill Rats and the Moncton Miracles in the postseason. The surprising Express won 11 of their last 13 games to clinch 3rd place while the Miracles won their last 5 in a row to grab 5th place. Moncton improved on a 9-27 first season to 20-20 this year.

In the playoffs, the New Brunswick rivals Mill Rats and Miracles went down to a 3rd and final game in a best of three play-in series. Moncton won their first ever game in Harbour Station, 111-103 in game 3, to advance to the Semis.

Both semis were very competitive down to the end. The defending champion and #1 seed London Lightning won a close fought contest in Moncton 104-98 on March 30th to advance 3 games to 1 to the NBL Canada Finals. In the other series, Summerside and Windsor went down to a 5th and deciding game 5 in Summerside after a thrilling 124-122 double OT win by the Express. In game 5 the Storm emerged with their first ever Final berth 109-013.

Fittingly the #1 and #2 teams set out to do battle in the NBL Canada Finals. The Lightning claimed the first two games on their home floor over the Summerside Storm. Once back in Summerside, the Storm regained their stride and convincingly got back in the series with a 111-99 win. Looking to tie the series in game 4, the Storm lost a 20 point lead at home and the experience of London propelled them to the 2nd championship in a row. Marvin Phillips, a longtime NBA Development League player, was named the Finals MVP.

Year Three 2013-14: With two new Ontario-based franchises joining the NBL – the Ottawa SkyHawks and the Brampton A's – the NBL expanded to a league-high nine teams. Two other franchises found new life in new venues; the Summerside Storm relocated to Charlottetown, P.E.I., while the Oshawa Power moved to the other side of the GTA and became the Mississauga Power.

The two-time defending champion London Lightning set several league attendance records in 2013-14, including the all-time record for a regular-season contest on February 17, 2014 when 7,396 fans packed the Budweiser Gardens to watch London defeat Brampton 114-96.

In the Central Division, the Brampton A's started off strong and led the division early, but the Windsor Express charged their way back to the top of the division. Meanwhile, the Atlantic Division saw the Saint John Mill Rats and Island Storm battle back and forth for the top of the standings, while Moncton and Halifax kept fighting to remain out of the division cellar.

In the playoffs, the Halifax Rainmen – who fired head coach Chris Terrell in midseason after a woeful 0-6 start and replaced him with veteran NBA 3-point marksman Craig Hodges – shocked the Atlantic Division-leading Saint John Mill Rats in a 3-1 quarterfinals series victory, while the Island Storm made short work of the Moncton Miracles with their own 3-1 first-round triumph.

In the Central Division, after the Power won their first playoff game in franchise history with a 100-99 play-in win over the Ottawa SkyHawks, they were quickly eliminated 3-0 in the quarterfinals by the Windsor Express. At the same time, the London Lightning and Brampton A's fought to a full game five of their five-game series, with the Lightning winning 90-86 to advance.

As the Storm returned to the NBL Finals for the second consecutive season, ending the Rainmen's Cinderella season with a 4-2 best-of-seven run, the Windsor Express pulled off an incredible run of their own, defeating London 4-3 to reach the finals for the first time in franchise history.

Windsor and the Island went through the entire seven-game finals, with the Storm leading 3-1. But Windsor took Game 5 113-111, and then claimed the next two contests to give the Express the 2014 NBL Canada championship.

Year Four 2014-15: As the National Basketball League of Canada reached its fourth season, it also reached new attendance records in its core cities. The London Lightning often reached crowds of 7,000 – 8,000 per game, while the Halifax Rainmen and Windsor Express also enjoyed significant attendance increases.

On the court, players like Omar Strong (Mississauga Power) dominated on the scoreboard (high games of 44 and 42 points, season records for field goals made, single game with 11, NBL Canada Sixth Man of the Year).

Other new talents to make their mark in the NBL were Kevin Young of the Halifax Rainmen (17.4 ppg, 2.16 steals per game, NBL Defensive Player of the Year), Marcus Capers of the Mississauga Power (8.13 rebounds per game, 1.46 blocked shots) and Rashad Whack of the Island Storm, who snagged the league's Rookie of the Year award.

As the season wore down, the Halifax Rainmen completed a ten-game winning streak to finish atop the NBL's Atlantic Division, while the defending champion Windsor Express reclaimed the Central Division regular season title.

The postseason saw amazing battles between each team, as miracle shots and last-minute buzzer-beaters kept fans on the edge of their seats throughout the playoffs.

In the end, the Windsor Express claimed their second consecutive NBL Canada title, while their opponents, the Halifax Rainmen, finished the season one game short.

Reach: NBL Canada and its teams have been very engaged through a variety of channels including: its games, online broadcasts, television broadcasts, the media, and social media channels.

This was kicked off by the League`s inaugural combine and draft being aired live online to over 6,000 viewers watching from 93 countries.

The league`s social media presence continues to grow daily as we interact with users from around the world each and every day. Currently, through both Facebook and Twitter the league and its teams are directly connected to over 75,000 fans.

The league has received national and international media attention, earning ink in the New York Times, The Globe and Mail, The Boston Globe, ESPN, TSN and CBS Sports, to name a few.

The buzz of the new league has even earned the attention of NBA commissioner, David Stern, prompting him to call the league and ask, "just what is going on in Canada?!" The league has also received verbal support and interest from NBA greats such Rick Fox, Steve Nash and Dwight Howard, as well as influential Canadians such as George Stroumboulopoulos. The President of the NBA Development League wrote in a congratulatory letter that the "NBA is watching you from afar".

In our inaugural season, over 280,000 fans attended 136 NBL Canada regular and post-season games. All games were live broadcast online to tens of thousands more. Five teams had regional broadcast deals with Rogers TV live broadcasting Saint John, Moncton, Oshawa, and London games live throughout Ontario and New Brunswick reaching. Eastlink TV broadcasted Halifax games live to the Province of Nova Scotia.

In our second season, over 400,000 fans attended 176 regular and post-season games – a 42% increase.

Yes the NBL Canada no doubt reached millions of fans through various channels in just its first two seasons! We continue to seek to raise the bar in everything we do.

HEAD COACH JOSEPH SALERNO

Returning for this fourth season as the Head Coach of the Storm, Joe Salerno has been coaching at a variety of levels for the past 10 years. Salerno, who grew up in Barre, VT, began his pro coaching career with the now defunct Vermont Frost Heaves of the PBL as an assistant coach in June of 2008. After an 0-3 start, Salerno was promoted to Head Coach and led the Frost Heaves to a 12-5 finish being named the PBL's Coach of the Month in March of 2009.

Salerno was hired as the Head Coach and VP of Player Personnel for the Storm in August of 2011. After a rough first season which saw the Storm finish 7th in the NBL CANADA and miss the 2012 playoffs, Salerno led the Storm to an impressive 26-14 regular season record in 2012-2013 which was good enough for the NBL CANADA's Atlantic division title and the number 2 overall seed in the NBL CANADA Playoffs. Salerno would lead the Storm all the way to the NBL CANADA Finals where they would eventually lose to the London Lightning. Salerno was named Coach of the Month in January 2013, as well as Head Coach of the Atlantic Division All-Star team. Salerno received the NBL CANADA's Co-Coach of the Year award along with London's Micheal Ray Richardson.

In the 2013-14 season, Salerno guided the Storm back to the NBL Canada championship, only to come up short against the eventual champion Windsor Express.

Salerno is the longest-tenured head coach in the NBL Canada. He currently resides in Cornwall, PEI with his wife Darci, son Camden, and daughter Alexandra.

HEAD COACH KEN MURRAY

Coach Ken Murray is back behind the bench for a Niagara based basketball team! Well known from his tenure with the Brock University Badgers, where he won two Canadian Interuniversity Sport (CIS) championships in 1992 and 2008, Coach Ken is excited for his first chance to coach at the professional level.

Having coached at every possible level, including elementary school, high school, and CIS, Coach Ken came out of retirement to take on his biggest challenge yet - bringing our recruits together to create a cohesive team on the court. And the Coach Ken that stands behind our bench will be different than the man who stood on the sidelines at Brock - he's a lot more mellow than he was five years ago.

Coach Ken Murray's resume includes time at the University of Regina, where he turned around a struggling program that had lost 62 consecutive games. When he left in 1989, the Cougars had risen to second place in Canada. From 1989-2010, while at Brock University, Coach Ken won 535 games, making him the school's most winningest head coach.

Although it will be very different for him to coach at the professional level, we know that Coach Ken is the right man for the job! We can't wait to see him bring his coaching acumen to our team for our inaugural season!

While this season marks the first time Chris will be leading a team, he is no stranger to basketball at the highest levels. He mostly recently held the role of Advance Scout for the Utah Jazz last season, prior to that, he had successful stops in various roles with the Chicago Bulls and the Golden State Warriors. In his 5 years in the NBA, Chris helped his teams to 3 playoff appearances. Chris played a key role in helping the Warriors get to back-to-back playoff appearances for the 1st time in 22 years (2013 & 2014) as well as win the 4th most games in franchise history (51 – 2013-14). Chris is also no stranger to FIBA basketball, he served as an Assistant Coach for the Slovenian Senior Men's National Team for two summers. Prior to all of his professional coaching experience, Chris was an Assistant Coach/Director of Basketball Operations at 3 universities. His most notable stop was at Miami University (OH). HEAD COACH ROB SPON

Rob Spon returns to the Port City on a 2-year contract to coach the Mill Rats. Coach Spon coached the 2014-15 season with the Rochester Razorsharks in the Premier Basketball League (USA), and led them to an undefeated season and a title. He hopes the "3rd time is the charm" with the Mill Rats.

He led Saint John to the 2013-14 Atlantic Division championship, and did the same in 2008-2009 when the team was in Manchester (N.H.) in the PBL. He has also coached the Quebec Kebs and Halifax Rainmen in the NBL in seasons past.

INTERIM HEAD COACH: TONY JONES

Tony Jones most recently held an assistant coaching position at Auburn University last season on the staff of Bruce Pearl. Auburn reached the semi-finals of the SEC tournament, losing out only to the #1 team in the nation, Kentucky.

Prior to Auburn, Jones coached alongside Pearl for 10 seasons between the University of Tennessee and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Jones led the Volunteers to five straight Southeastern Conference victories during an eight-game stretch that saw him assume the role of acting head coach in Pearl's absence for the first half of the 2011 league schedule.

At the conclusion of Jones' successful eight-game stint as acting head coach, Tennessee ranked near the top of the SEC in numerous statistical categories during conference play.

As associate head coach, Jones' primary responsibilities at Tennessee included recruiting, scheduling and working with the perimeter players. An instrumental force in landing some of the influential players in his team's success, he has made in-roads to signing a number of the top players in the nation.

In his 18 seasons of collegiate coaching, Jones has helped direct his teams to 11 postseason tournament bids, including eight NCAA Tournament appearances. Four times he coached teams that appeared in the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament and one team he took to the Elite Eight, Tennessee's first-ever appearance in the Regional Finals.

Tennessee experienced unprecedented success during Jones' six years on the bench. Tennessee averaged 24.2 wins and won three SEC Eastern Division championships. The 2008 team captured the overall SEC title outright for the first time in 41 years, won a school record 31 games and earned the first No. 1 ranking in school history.

Each of his six seasons at Tennessee resulted in a NCAA Tournament appearance, including three trips to the Sweet 16. Two times Tennessee received a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament – the highest in school history

Jones got his first taste of coaching at his alma mater, Detroit Southwestern High School, where he served as an assistant varsity coach while also serving as head junior varsity coach from 1986-91. During this time he coached future NBA stars Jalen Rose, Howard Easley and Vashon Lenard, leading them to the mythical USA TODAY national title in 1991. He also served as head coach of Team AAU Michigan for three years (1991-93), posting a 35-1 record and capturing two AAU state championships.
